

Halton Youth Initiative

A Story of Journey, Relationships and Opportunity

Story notes

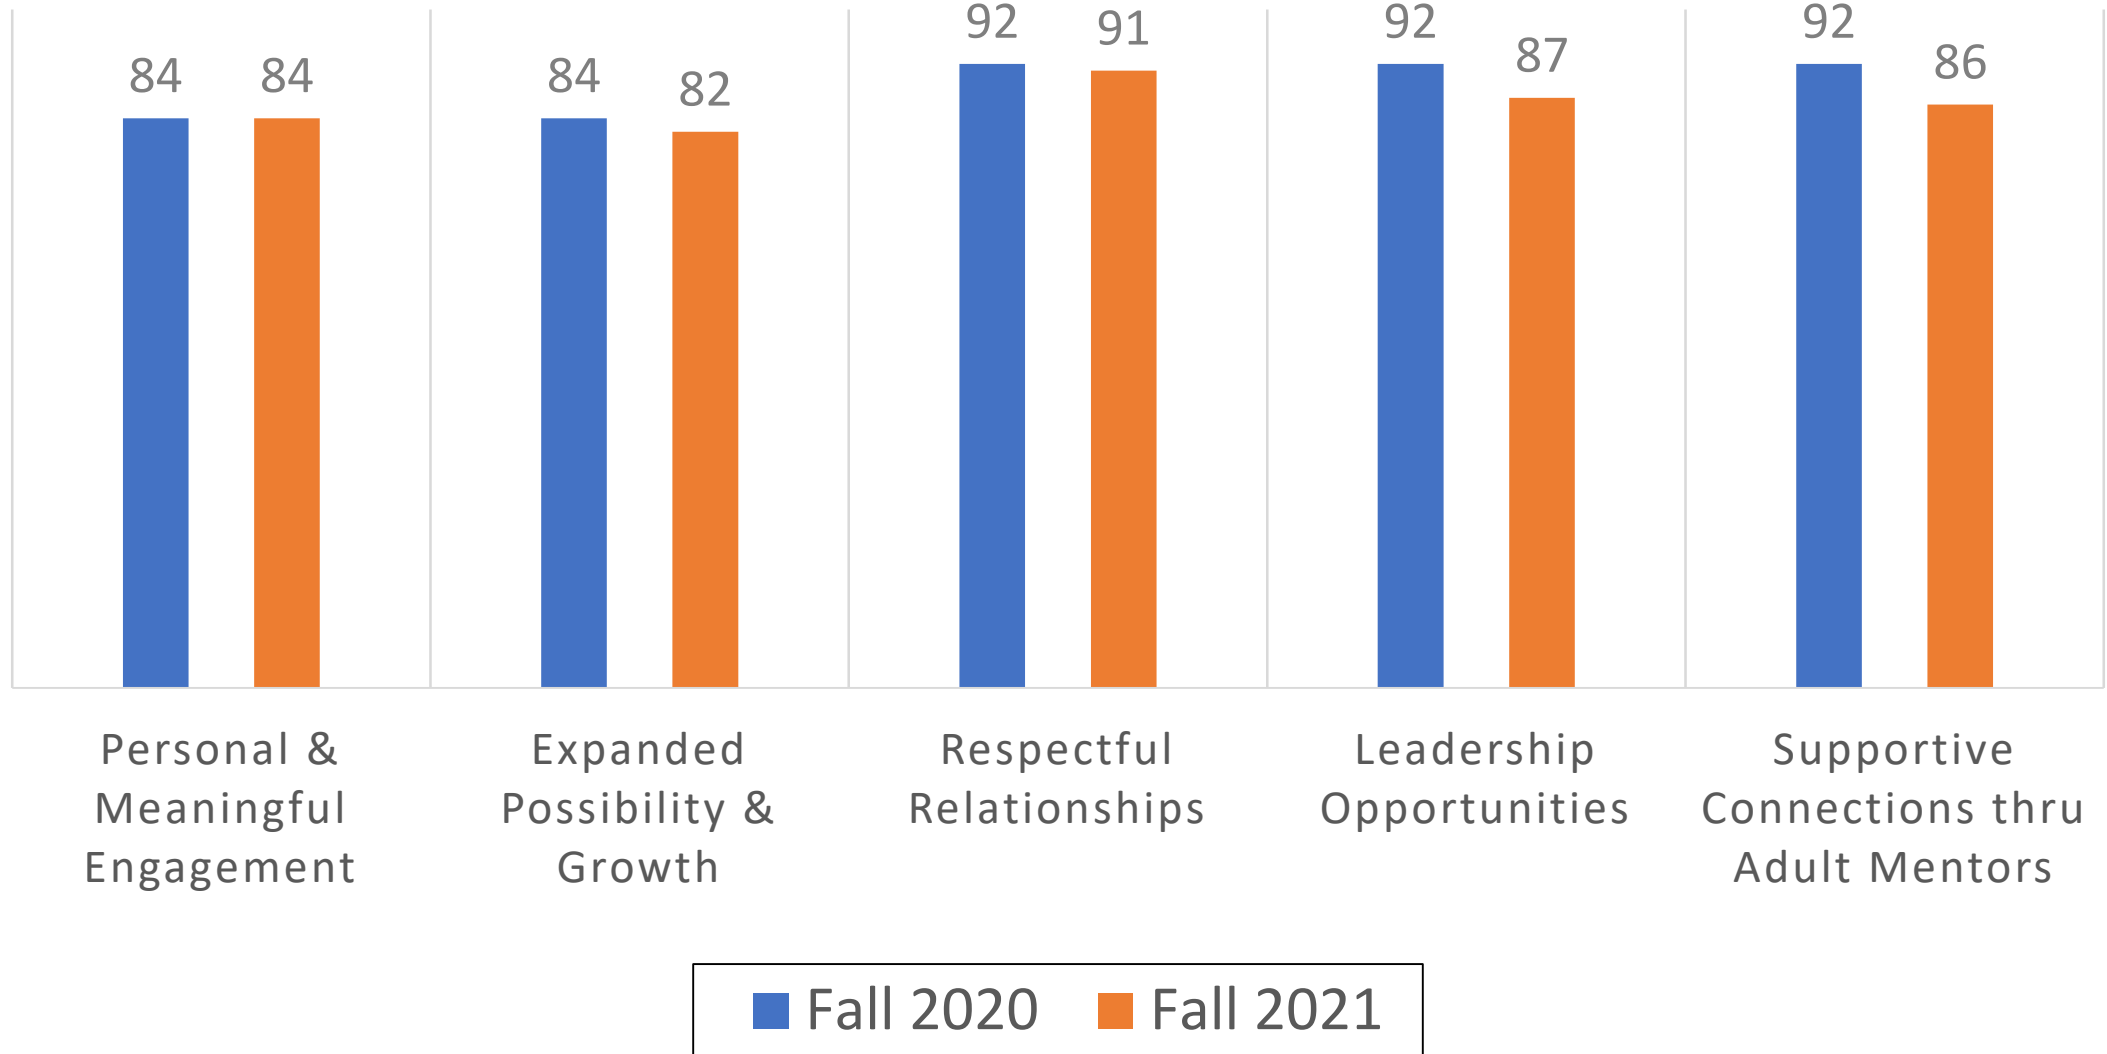

Survey – Fall 2020

- Completed by youth currently involved in Oct 2020
- On-line survey
- Took about 5 minutes to complete
- 65 youth sent the survey
- 53 completed surveys
- Response rate - 82%

Survey – Fall 2021

- Completed by youth currently involved in Oct 2021
- On-line survey
- Took about 5 minutes to complete
- 82 youth sent the survey
- 48 completed surveys
- Response rate - 56%

Key Outcome Measures

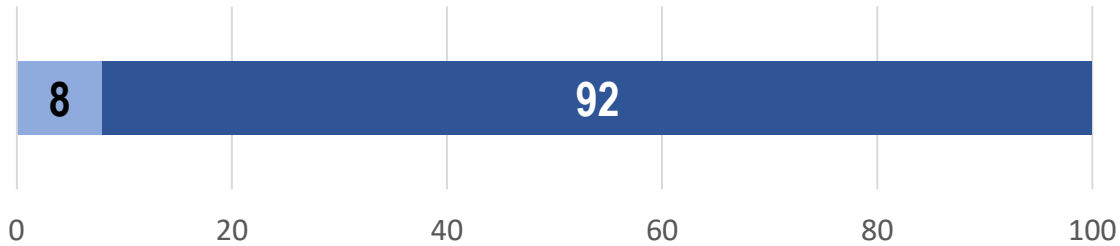

Respectful Relationships

Expressing Care: Preparing the Ground

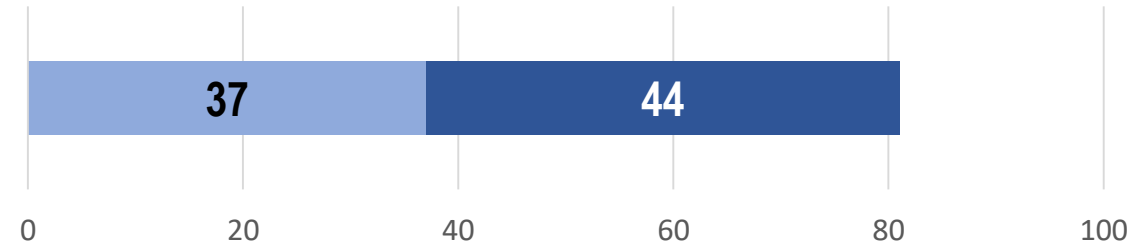

92

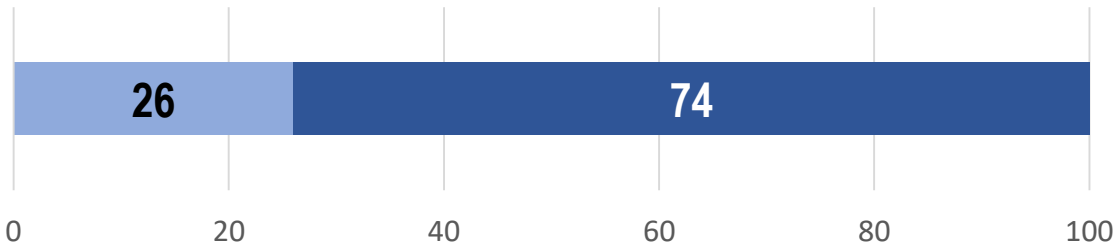

I am treated with respect

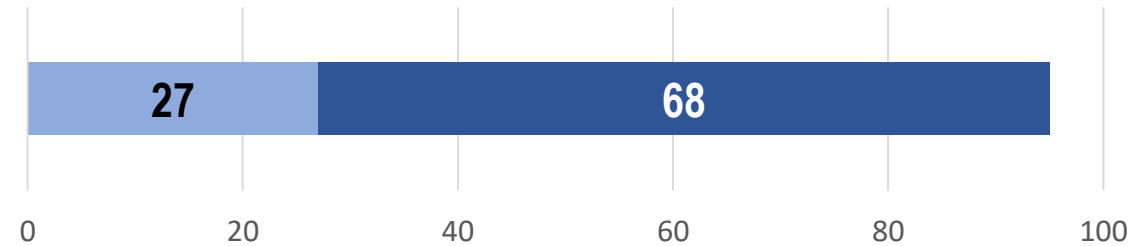

We joke around and have fun

Others value my ideas

I feel my work is appreciated

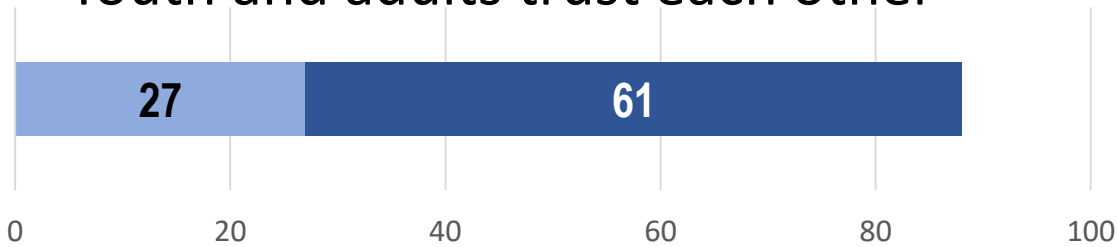

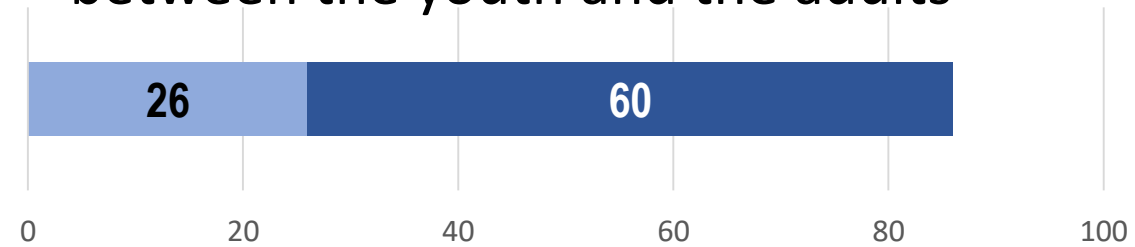

Supportive Connections thru Adult Mentors 90

Providing Support: Nurturing the Crop

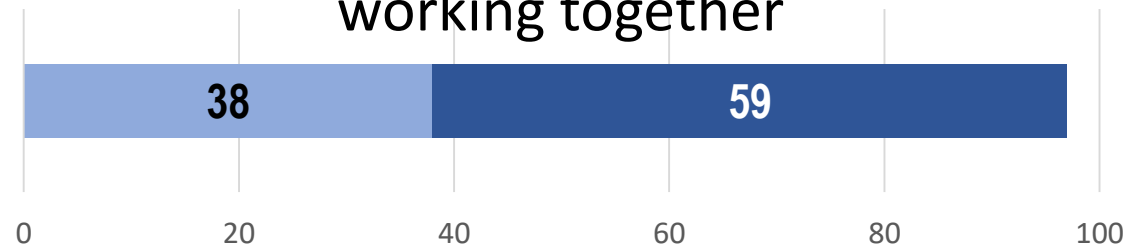

Youth and adults trust each other

There is a good balance of power between the youth and the adults

Youth and adults learn a lot from working together

LEGEND

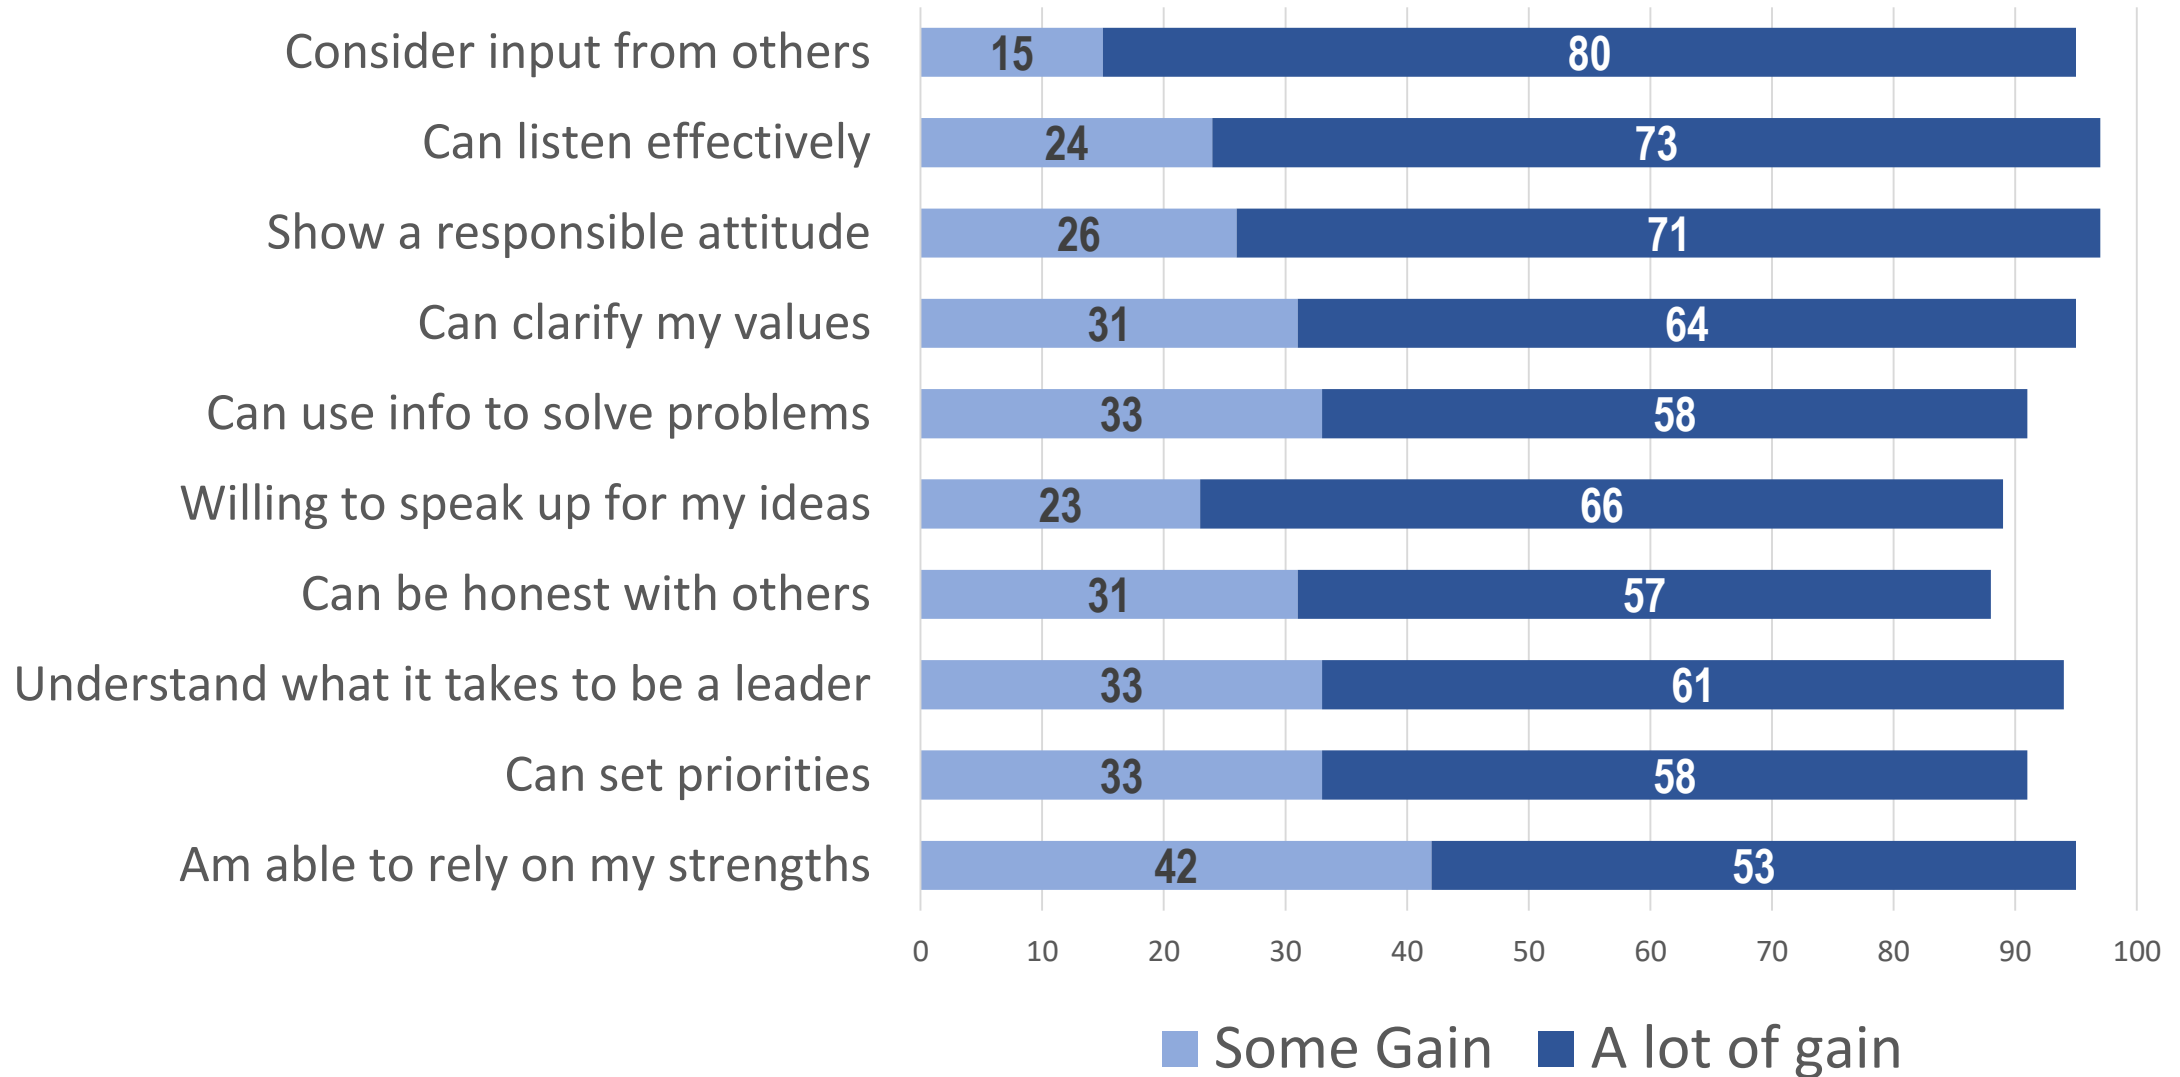

- Agree
- Strongly Agree

Leadership Development

Challenging Growth: Planting the Seeds

90

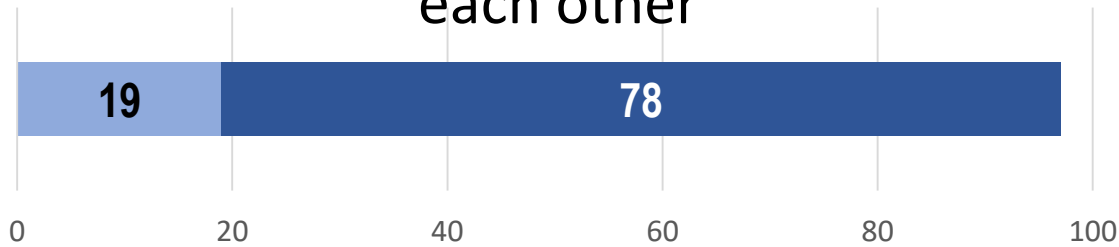

Supportive Connections thru Adult Mentors

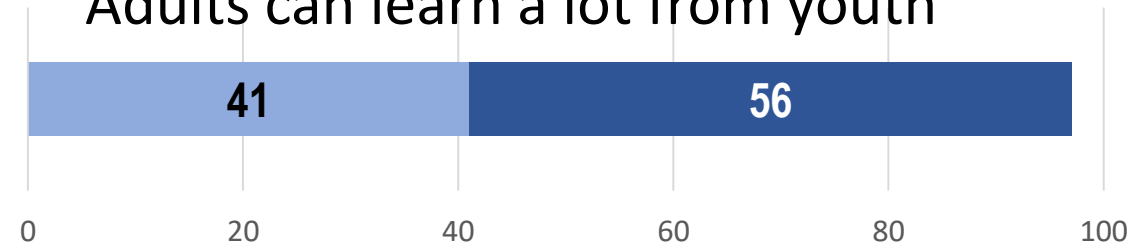

Providing Support: Nurturing the Crop

90

It is clear that and adults respect
each other

Adults can learn a lot from youth

LEGEND

Agree

Strongly Agree

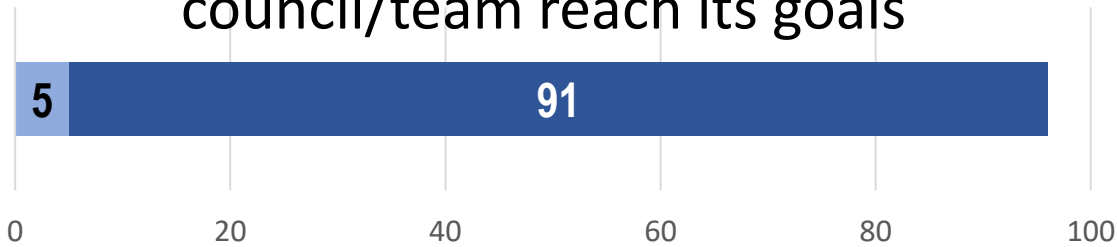

Meaningful Engagement

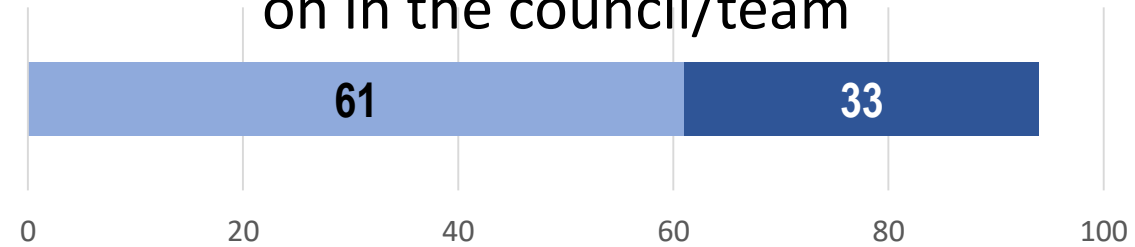

Sharing Power: Bearing Fruit

84

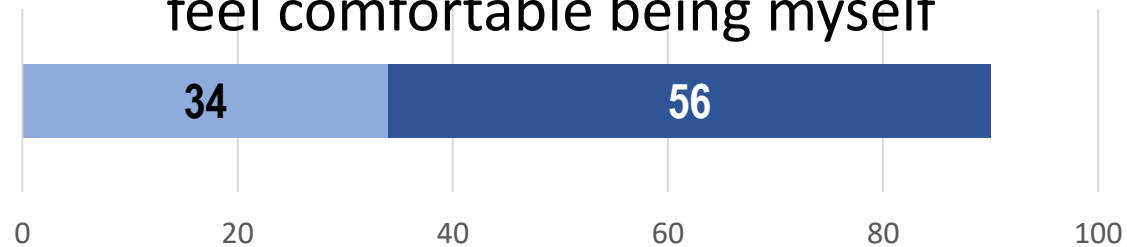

I complete tasks that help the council/team reach its goals

I feel aware of what's going on in the council/team

During the council/team meetings, I feel comfortable being myself

LEGEND

- Most of the Time
- Always

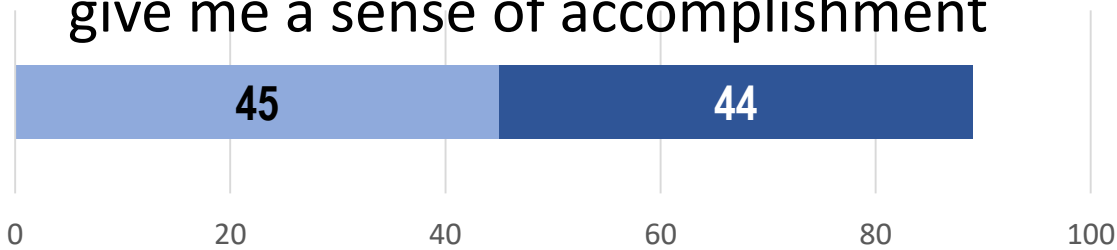

Meaningful Engagement

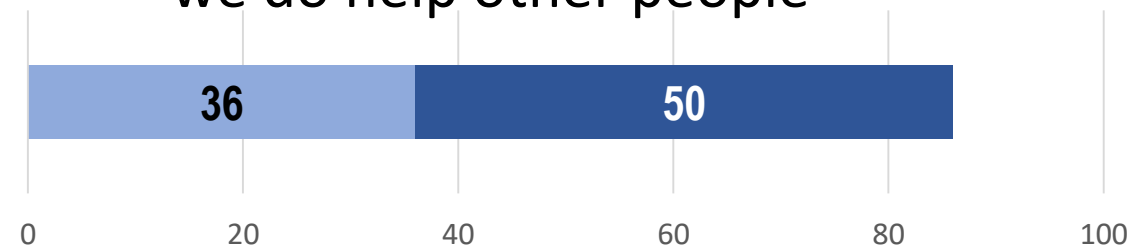

Sharing Power: Bearing Fruit

84

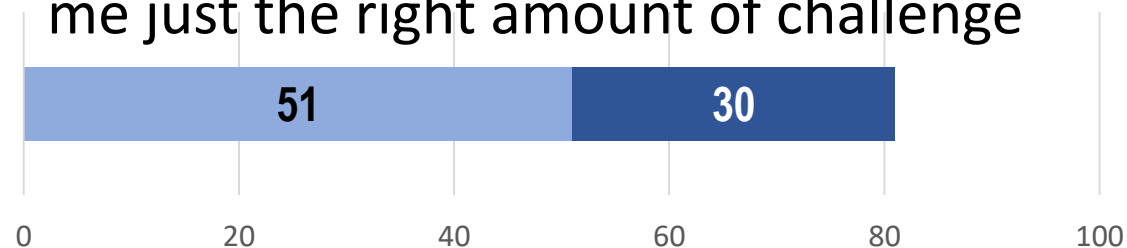

The council/team activities we do give me a sense of accomplishment

The council/team activities we do help other people

The council/team activities we do give me just the right amount of challenge

LEGEND

- Most of the Time
- Always

Expanded Possibilities and Growth

Expanding Possibilities: The Legacy

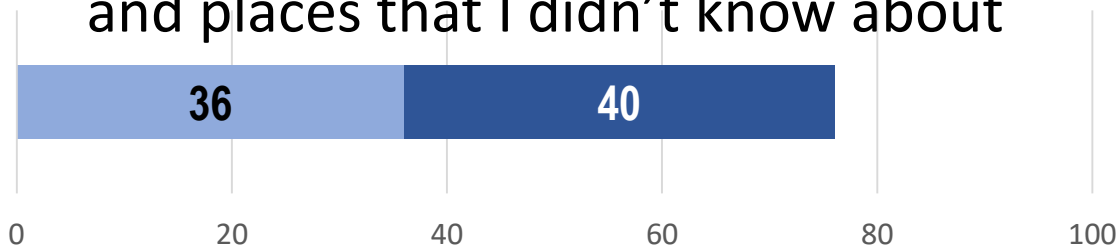

83

LEGEND

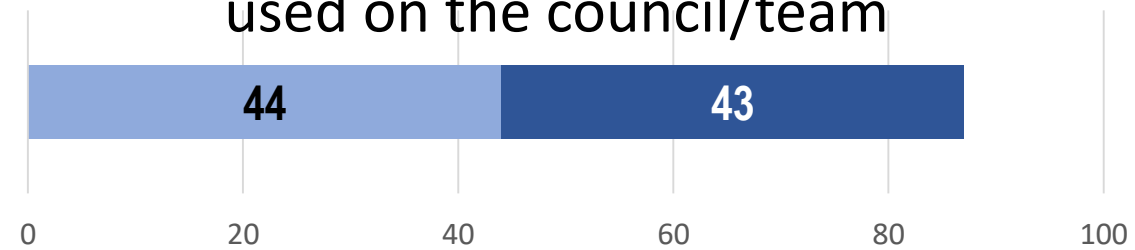

Most of the Time

Always

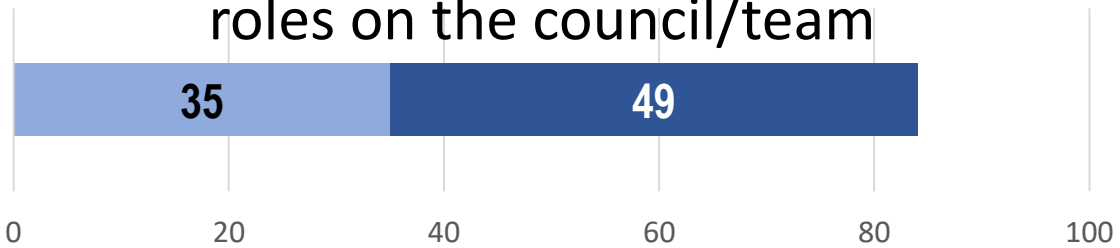

My council/team connects me with people and places that I didn't know about

When possible, my ideas are used on the council/team

I can participate in leadership roles on the council/team

The council/team provides me with training opportunities to improve my skills

